

2023 AMWA-GCAC CONFERENCE

Sponsorship Proposal

About Us

Fostering Excellence in Medical Communication

The American Medical Writer Association - Greater Chicago Area Chapter (AMWA-GCAC) is a non-profit organization that provides accessible educational resources and networking opportunities for medical communicators in the Greater Chicago area. We are the longest-standing chapter of AMWA and serve more than 250 AMWA members in the entire state of Illinois and southern part of Wisconsin.

Event Highlights

Chapter Conference Overview

Held every 2 years, the AMWA-GCAC Conference is a premier professional development and networking event for AMWA members throughout the Greater Chicago area.

The 2023 Conference will feature renowned multi-disciplinary speakers in medical communication, with an estimated 50–70 attendees from various backgrounds.

Benefits of Sponsorship

- Get direct access to a wide array of local talents in medical communication
- Disseminate information about your programs, products, or services
- Demonstrate your commitment to excellence in medical communication

Sponsorship Package

$100

Silver

- Company logo* on conference materials and communications (print and online)
- Company logo* on sponsor slide in opening remarks and between sessions

*Logo size and placement will be adjusted according to sponsorship level.

$350

Gold

- All silver offerings
- 1 URL (job posting, program, service) on conference page
- 1 complimentary registration

$500

Platinum

- All gold offerings
- 3 URLs (job posting, program, service) on conference page
- 2 complimentary registrations + 1 table next to the conference room
- Company logo on conference ticket

For other types of sponsorship, such as donations of supplies or promotional items, please contact Chris Tilles (Treasurer) at ctilles2186@gmail.com.